CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Writ Petition NO. 4474 of 2005

Shri Anabhu Armugam ... Petitioner vs.
Union of India and ors. ..... Respondents

Mr. S. S. Karkera for Petitioner
None for Respondent

CORAM: F. I. REBELLO & ROSHAN DALVI JJ.
Date: 24/11/2005

P.C.

The Petitioner seeks employment on compassionate basis. The father of the Petitioner was working as a regular Khalasi. The mother of the Petitioner is a railway employee. She has received the settlement dues and is receiving family pension. Both the sisters of the Petitioner are married and settled. The Petitioner has passed only 4th standard. The learned Tribunal after considering various contentions including that the mother of the Petitioner is a railway employee and that there was no power to relax the minimum qualification found no case for directing appointment on compassionate grounds. After considering the reasoning adopted by the Tribunal on all aspects, including relaxation of minimum qualification we do not find any reason to interfere in exercise of the extra ordinary jurisdiction. Petition stands dismissed.
